What do you pay this financial service provider?

Here you will only find average prices. The average price is the price that clients pay in a comparable situation. The more complex your financial situation, the more you usually pay. Your financial service provider will inform you about the exact price. Always have agreements recorded in writing, so you know what the financial service provider will do for you and how much you will pay for it. The table with average prices follows below.

	Fewer than 250 employees.	More than 250 employees.
Providing advice and arranging contract	€ 260	€ 260
Arranging contract only	×	×
Providing advice only	×	×
This is a very rough average hourly rate

What can this financial service provider do for you in the future?

Always return to a financial service provider when there are changes in your personal situation. Due to these changes the pension product may no longer suit your situation. For example because your family situation or income changes. You may then be paying too much or taking on more risk than you want.

You can always visit a financial service provider for an introductory meeting. If there is an important change in your pension product, the financial service provider or provider will contact you, without you having to pay for this.

Does this financial service provider also offer maintenance services? ¹
